OR2011-04439

Dear Mr. Moore:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 417644.

The Roanoke Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for the results of a specified blood test. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information that other statutes make confidential. Section 724.018 of the Transportation Code provides that "[o]n the request of a person who has given a specimen at the request of a peace officer, full information concerning the analysis of the specimen shall be made available to the person or the person's attorney." Transp. Code § 724.018. Where a statute provides an individual with a special right of access to information, that information may not be withheld from that individual. See Open Records Decision Nos. 613 (1993), 623 (1994). You contend that because the requestor is neither the person whose blood specimen was analyzed nor that person's attorney, the submitted information should not be released. Thus, you appear to argue that release of this information would be a violation of section 724.018.

In Open Records Decision No. 478 (1987), this office interpreted the predecessor statute, section 3(e) of article 6701 1-5 of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as creating a special right of access for the person supplying the specimen; we concluded that the statute did not constitute a grant of confidentiality with regard to other persons. ORD 478 at 2-3; see also Open Records Decision Nos. 658 (1998) (statutory confidentiality provision must be express), 465 (1987) (confidentiality requirement not to be implied from statutory structure). Therefore, the department may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 724.018 of the Transportation Code. As you raise no other exception to disclosure, the submitted information must be released to the requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
